Stockholm, December 19, O. S.

WE have a Report in Town, that a Ship in which Count Meyerfeldt and his Family were coming over from Stralſund hither, is loſt at Sea. We have Accounts daily of great Loſſes from ſeveral Places on the Coaſt, the Weather having been very ſtormy for above 14 Days paſt; and the Night before laſt we had here as violent a Tempeſt as has been known in ſeveral Years.

Cadiz, Jan. 5, N. S. The Quarantain is now entirely taken off all Ships coming from the North, and Endeavours are uſing to get the viſiting of Ships and Goods taken off, that Commerce may be on the ſame Footing as before the late Contagion in France.

Madrid, Jan. 11. On Friday laſt their Catholick Majeſties, with the Royal Family, ſet out from hence for the Pardo. The Marqueſs de Grimaldo Secretary of State attends his Majeſty there, but Father Daubanton his Majeſty's Confeſſour has Leave to remain in this City. Upon Advice that the Chevalier d'Orleans is on the Road from Paris to come to this Court, a Courier was diſpatched four Days ago to Bayone, with an Order for letting his Retinue, Equipage and Baggage, paſs free without paying any Duty. We have an Account, that the Officers and others ſent by the Court to receive Mademoiſelle de Beaujolois, arrived at Toloſa the 31ſt paſt; it is alſo adviſed, that Princeſs cannot come to the Frontier till the Middle of this Month, the bad Weather having retarded her Journey. A Conference having been held a few Days ago at the Marqueſs de Grimaldo's by the chief Perſons in the Miniſtry, to conſider of the Aſſiſtance which the King is willing to give to the Order of Malta, a Reſolution is taken to furniſh 6000 Soldiers, and ſeven Men of War, which Reſolution has been communicated to the Ambaſſadour of Malta.

Copenhagen, Jan. 12, N. S. By the laſt Letters from Moſcow it is adviſed, that the Czar was not arrived there, but had been expected every Day for ſome Time.

Hambourg, Jan 15, N. S. The freſheſt Letters from Moſcow are of the 18th of December, and import, that the Czar arrived at Veronitz the 16th, and deſigned to be at Moſcow [illegible]d.

Cambray, Jan. 18, N. S. The Chevalier de Laval Miniſter of Malta, being recalled by the Great Maſter, ſet out from hence on Friday laſt: M. de Chamilly Brother to the Archbiſhop of Tours, is ſaid to be coming hither in his Place.

Hague, Jan. 19, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland continue aſſembled, waiting for the Conſent of ſome Towns to a Propoſal made to pay the Debts of North-Holland upon certain Conditions, that Part of the Province not having paid a Penny of the ſeveral Contingencies they are obliged to, for ſome Years.

Whitehall, January 18.

His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales has been pleaſed to appoint the two following Sheriffs:

Cornwall, Richard Polwheele of Polwheele, Eſq;

Cheſter, Sir Thomas Aſton of Aſton, Bar.

Whitehall, Jan. 14, 172$\frac{3}{4}$.

Whereas the Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy have received Information from the Officers of His Majeſty's Yard at Woolwich, that there have been ſtolen from the Fifth Moorings, Eleven Fathom of Eleven Inch Cable laid Pendant, as alſo Twelve Fathom of a Buoy Rope of ſix Inches and an half, and that the Buoy was brought to Woolwich the next Morning by a Fiſherman, who took it up adrift at Blackwall: His Majeſty is pleaſed, for the better diſcovery of the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery, to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any Perſon concerned in the ſame, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplices in the ſaid Robbery to the ſaid Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy, ſo as that the ſaid Accomplices may be apprehended and proceeded againſt according to Law.

CARTERET.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty do promiſe to the Perſon who ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery, a Reward of Ten Pounds.

The Comptrollers of the ſecond Lottery Anno 1719, do hereby give Notice, That they are ready to direct all Intereſt due at Chriſtmas laſt paſt, on the ſtanding Orders made out in lieu of Tickets which were not ſubſcribed into the Capital Stock of the South-Sea Company; and alſo the principal Money of the ſaid Orders ſo far as 400 l. in Part of the Order No. 2 in the 104th Courſe of Payment; Money being reſerved in the Exchequer for diſcharging the ſame.
